QUALITY POLICY

Introduction

It is the policy of ParkinsonHowe to provide a range of services, which meet the requirements of its customers and quality standard parameters, and that programmes are maintained on schedule at the agreed price. All work is carried out in a cost-effective and timely manner and in accordance with the highest professional standards aiming for continual improvement and customer satisfaction through the involvement and participation of all levels of management, staff, and other interested parties..

Objectives

A policy for quality conforming to the requirements of ISO9001 has been established to ensure that it: -

- Is appropriate to the purpose of the organisation, the expected level of customer satisfaction and the needs of other interested parties.
- Includes a commitment to meeting requirements and to continual improvement.
- Have the resources needed and the contribution of suppliers and partners
- Provides a framework for establishing and reviewing quality objectives.
- Demonstrates top management commitment and ensures the quality objectives are communicated, understood, and implemented at appropriate levels of the organisation.
- Is regularly reviewed at the management review meeting for suitability and effectiveness in addressing continual improvement and client satisfaction.

Management is ultimately responsible for making balanced judgements, assessing the significance of variations in this sphere, and taking decisions. In arriving at such decisions, the quality and personal integrity of staff are of fundamental importance. In this context, all effort is made to ensure that each person in the organisation understands that quality assurance is important to their future, knows how they can assist in the achievement of adequate quality and are stimulated and encouraged to do so.

Quality Policy Review

This policy is approved by the undersigned and is supported by all the levels of management within the organisation. All personnel shall be guided by the contents of the company management system and no deviation from the methods.
